Knight Crew

This week one of our current students, Alex Rohmat, and one of our former students, Tendayi Mtambara, have both performed in the operatic production of Knight Crew at Glyndebourne. We thank Mr Jones, Deputy Head, who was instrumental in arranging this through his contacts at Glyndebourne. There will be a full report on this in next week's newsletter.

Academy Preparation

Arrangements are continuing for The Eastbourne Academy that is proposed to replace ETC in September this year. The consultation showed that a majority of parents who responded were in favour of the change and many suggestions were also made about how to improve ETC in the process.

Mr Jungius who is stepping in as Acting Headteacher while I am working on the Academy preparation, is now at ETC for four days a week and some days this means we have two headteachers on site as I hobble round (I am still on crutches but more mobile!) with architects and planners.

Examination Preparation

During this period, it is essential that our students who are sitting examinations this year keep up the required efforts to make sure they get the best possible results. We are now monitoring their progress towards GCSEs every two weeks so that we can act quickly if we see any signs of them slipping back. If you would like any more details of this, please contact Ms Joseph, Assistant Headteacher, at the school or by e mail.

Year 8 Study Skills Evening

The Year 8 Study Skills Evening & Parent-Teacher consultation will take place between 5.30pm and 7.30pm on Thursday 18th March 2010. This is an opportunity for parents to meet the subject teachers, discuss academic progress and identify actions necessary to ensure students achieve their potential.
