Read the story below and using the music notes on side 2 of this sheet complete the spaces. You might find it easier to write your answers under the notes before transferring them to the story.

JOURNEY INTO SPACE

As Red and Josh stepped out of their rocket onto the surface of the planet

1 _____ they stood 2 _____ to 3 _____ and realized in silence that they were standing where no man had stood before. It did not seem very long since they had eaten their last meal of 4 _____ and 5 _____ steak in the small 6 _____ on site back at the air base.

They looked at the view which met their eyes and realised that they were on the 7 _____ of a new world. "Come on, old man" said Red "Let's get started". Thus recalled to himself Josh picked up a 8 _____ and the two men set off, coping remarkably well with the unaccustomed change in gravity.

It had been part of their training. An hour later they had 9 _____ up a great many rocks and were feeling 10 _____ out. As they made their way back to the rocket the sun glinted eerily on the 11 _____ which was part of their uniform. Red 12 _____ one or two more of the rocks to the 13 _____ as they went but it was not long before the two men 14 _____ down for the night. This was the first journey that man had made into space for over a 15 _____
